Outcome:

- The program leads to improved sanitation infrastructure, including the provision of proper waste disposal systems, contributing to a cleaner and healthier environment.
- Better sanitation practices and cleaner environments lead to improved public health outcomes, including reduced incidences of waterborne diseases, diarrheal illnesses, and other sanitation-related health issues.
- Through awareness campaigns and educational programs, the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan promotes behavioural change among individuals and communities, encouraging them to adopt hygienic practices and maintain cleanliness in their surroundings.
- The program fosters a sense of civic responsibility and pride among community members, promoting social cohesion and solidarity in working towards a shared goal of cleanliness and sanitation.
